ADMIRAL GRAYSON DECLARES HEALTH OF PRESIDENT NOW IS ON THE UPGRADE

Statement of Visiting Committee Not Sponsored by the White House.

MUCH STRONGER NOW, PHYSICIAN'S OPINION

Holt Delegation Said Tragic that Executive Gave Health to Service.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Whatever the impression gained by the delegation of supporters of the league of nations, received by President Wilson yesterday, it was made evident today that their statements on the President's physical condition represented their own conclusions only.

Secretary Tumulty was emphatic in pointing out that the formal statement of the delegation, headed by Hamilton Holt, must not be regarded as sponsored by the white house. Admiral Grayson, the President's physician, was equally as positive in declaring that the President was stronger now than at any time after he was first taken ill.

When Admiral Grayson read the comment of the delegation, which said "it was nothing less than tragic that the great President of the United States should have been brought to such a stricken physical condition," he declared the improvement in the President's health, while slow, had been steady and without relapses.

Situation Tragic

Last night the delegation which had visited President Wilson, issued a formal statement in which it was declared that President Wilson was voicing "the profoundest emotions of his heart."

"More than once his voice broke especially when he referred to the soldier boys and the mothers of those who had fallen in battle," the statement added.

"The whole occasion was indescribably solemn and tender. It is nothing less than tragic that the President has been brought to such a stricken physical condition as the result of his indefatigable labors for his country and for humanity. We felt that this might be the President's final appeal to the conscience of his countrymen in the supreme moral decision that they are called upon to make."

In addressing the President yesterday, Rev. Arthur J. Brown, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, said:

"Mr. President, will you permit me as a Republican and a clergyman, to say that a far larger number of the Christian people of this country than you perhaps realize have you in their heart and pray that the blessing of Almighty God may rest upon you and give health and strength for your many burdens."

COLORADO MINERS OUT ON A STRIKE

(International News Service)
DENVER, Oct. 28.—Two thousand miners, in the northern Colorado coal fields, responded today to a strike call in that region. Governor Shoup has ordered state rangers to the scene to preserve order. In a statement issued from the Governor's office, it is claimed the strike is a "political move" to embarrass the executive. The production of coal in Boulder, Weld and Jefferson counties will be reduced 75 per cent by the strike. The principal demands of the men is recognition of the union.

Naval Destroyer Radios Its Distress

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The United States destroyer Isherwood is in distress, ten miles southeast of Cape Lookout, N. C., presumably having run ashore, the Navy department announced this afternoon. Radio messages stated the vessel was "at anchor and out of water." The commandant of the Fifth naval district at Norfolk has dispatched the destroyer Bailey to the relief of the Isherwood.

SPECIAL SESSION OF ORGANIZATION OPENS

LARGELY ATTENDED MEETING HELD FOR ORGANIZING LOCAL LABOR DELEGATES

Visiting Card Men, Including Members Farmers Union, Are Present.

CARMEN'S DELEGATION IS ONE OF LARGEST

All the Local Crafts Have Representatives at Birmingham Today.

A largely attended meeting of men was held at Hardage Hall last night composed for the most part of delegates and alternates as elected by their lodges, to attend the special state convention of the Alabama Federation of Labor which opened in Birmingham this morning. Some visiting card men were present including member of the farmer's union. By unanimous consent D. C. Jones, who had called the meeting to order, was asked to act as chairman. The meeting at once went into an election for the organization of the delegation, which resulted in the selection of H. C. Huchison as chairman and T. Worley, as secretary. It was agreed that all delegates would be expected to leave for Birmingham early today so as to reach the convention hall by 10 o'clock.

The following delegates were reported at the meeting: W. G. Gentry, President of the Central Labor Union, who left for Birmingham late yesterday afternoon; George M. Webb, Geo. Feirtag, H. K. Laasch, L. E. Boezian, Frank Lewis, Clarence Turner, Eugene Sittson, T. B. Huddleston, J. E. Blair, L. F. Wilson, Sam Winton, Sam Catlo, Richard Moebes, J. H. Napps, Miss Susie McAnear, T. Worley, O. C. Norwood, J. H. Napps, F. M. Gardner, Charles Layman, and Messrs. Bush and Thompson, of the carpenters and painters respectively. All the local Louisville and Nashville crafts sent full delegations, but a number of these delegates were not at last night's meeting.

Large Delegation

The Brotherhood of Railway Carmen furnished the following list of delegates and their alternates. Delegates: Joe Parker, I. N. Hames, Walter Williams, H. C. Huchison, D. C. Jones, F. R. Ling, T. J. Martin, J. E. Haynes, E. C. Alford, J. V. Robertson, H. W. Mullins, C. J. Kent, C. M. Gilliam, E. E. Bass, and H. T. Williams.

Alternates: J. G. Terry, J. G. Collins, W. L. Carpenter, F. C. Thornhill, W. C. Stovall, D. M. Jones, M. A. Wildman, R. E. Martin, R. C. Walls, E. C. Wright, S. J. Baber, B. B. Bryan, W. C. Solomon, Geo. W. Portwood and C. R. Harris.

W. R. McCluskey, who is a member of the Carmen's union, is also Federation Vice President for the state. Mr. McCluskey has been in Birmingham for some days, where he serves as a member of the credentials committee.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Johnny Evers, famous second baseman of the Chicago Cubs in the days when Frank Chance was manager, today was appointed manager of the Chicago National league club.

Dorsey Declines To Join Parker

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 28.—Gov. Hugh M. Dorsey has declined to join in a movement to close cotton gins in a letter sent Gov. John M. Parker, of Louisiana, replying to a request of Governor Parker that he follow the example of the Louisiana governor, urging all gins to close for 30 days, in an effort to bolster the cotton market. Gov. Dorsey believes cotton can best be handled by having it ginned and placed in warehouses.

REPRESENTATIVES OF ALABAMA LABOR GATHER TO DISCUSS STATE'S SITUATION

Outcome of Conference at Birmingham is in No Way Indicated.

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER AT 10 O'CLOCK

William L. Harrison, President Alabama Federation, Delivers First Address.

(International News Service)
BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 28.—Five hundred and twenty delegates, representing organized labor from all sections of Alabama, assembled in special session at the Birmingham labor temple here this morning to discuss the labor situation throughout the state and especially, the coal miners strike in the Birmingham district. The outcome of the special meeting was in no way indicated at the opening session at ten o'clock.

It is possible the convention may be in session three days, no definite action being taken before Saturday afternoon. Robert Moore, president of the Birmingham Trades council called the meeting to order and was followed by William L. Harrison, president of the Alabama Federation of Labor. Mr. Harrison expressed keen satisfaction over the presence of so large a delegation.

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor and William H. Johnston, head of the International Machinists Union, notified farmers in session here today that labor will join with agricultural interests in a movement to obtain extension of credits for producers and to map out a political campaign. This was the first step in a plan for a powerful alliance between labor and the agricultural interests.

The conference which opened here today, under the auspices of the national board of farm organizations, is expected to perfect the alliance.

$823,345.09 Spent by the Democrats

Labor's 1st Bank to Open Monday

(International News Service)
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 28.—Labor's first bank will open its door here Monday morning. The bank will be known as the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Cooperative National bank and is capitalized at $1,000,000 with a surplus of $100,000, fully paid in. Its stockholders are members of the brotherhood exclusively and all officers, except one vice president, who also acts as manager, are chosen from among the officers of the brotherhood.

Gems Are Left In Taxi—Gone

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The police today continued their search for $100,000 worth of jewels in a handbag carelessly left in a taxicab in which the owner of the gems rode from the Waldorf hotel to the West 38th street ferry. Marcus and Company, jewelers, who reported the loss refused to give the name of the owner of the jewelry.

GOVERNOR COX OFF FOR INDIANAPOLIS TO MAKE HIS FINAL APPEAL FOR LEAGUE

Democratic Candidate Jubilant Over Reception in "Own Home Town."

HARDING AGAIN DENIES LETTER TO VANDERLIP

"Have No Agents or Representatives," Republican Standard Bearer Says.

(International News Service)
DAYTON, O., Oct. 28.—Governor James M. Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, left for Indianapolis today where he plans to deliver tonight a fervid exhortation in behalf of the league of nations, in hopes of changing what is declared to be the Democratic drift there into a Cox victory. The governor was jubilant over his whirlwind "welcome home" here and although rather tired today, from his campaigning, he did not plan to spare himself in the least in the wind-up of the campaign.

NO RECOLLECTION

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 28.—Declaring he "had no recollection of ever giving any sort of a letter" to Washington D. Vanderlip whose alleged activities in Russia have been linked by state department and news reports with the Republican candidate's name, Senator Harding today issued a further statement, denying any connection with Vanderlip's activities.

"If he ever got a letter from me," said the senator, "which I am positive he did not, it could not have been more than a purely formal note given at the request of some friend, but I am sure that no such letter even as that was ever given. Of course Vanderlip is in no way my agent and I never heard of this matter until it recently appeared in the news reports."

AMERICAN LEGION PLANS ARMISTICE DAY CELEBRATION

A celebration of Armistice will be planned by the local American Legion post at its regular meeting tonight, according to an announcement today by Raymond R. Brown, post commander.

The meeting will be called to order at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Albany chamber of commerce. Armistice Day is November 11.

Funeral is Held For J. S. Davis

Funeral services were held this morning for Jefferson S. Davis, beloved Trinity resident, who was almost instantly killed Tuesday afternoon when his automobile was struck by a passenger train at the Southern railway crossing at Trinity.

Interment was made in Fennell cemetery on Trinity mountain. Many friends from the Twin Cities attended the services to pay their last tribute to a life long resident of Morgan County, who had accomplished much toward the upbuilding of his community.

GREAT COAL STRIKE DEFINITELY AT END

Official Announcement of Settlement of Industrial Crisis in Great Britain Follows Conference of Cabinet With Representatives of Striking Miners.

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—The coal strike has been definitely settled, it was officially announced this afternoon. The official announcement was made subsequent to a meeting of the cabinet and a conference between representatives of the government and striking coal miners.

A last minute hitch over terms had threatened to wreck the coal peace, just as the public had begun to believe that the strike was rapidly nearing its end. Premier Lloyd George and the cabinet met during the morning to consider the situation previous to a new conference between representatives of the government and representatives of the Federation of Miners.

The cause of the sudden block has been a secret, but The Daily News reveals that it arose over a proposal by the government to share with the mine owners and the workers the profits out of excess production, beyond the normal standard. The government puts its plan in the form of a "selling scale" of excess profits. The South Wales miners, according to The Daily Express, demanded the right to formulate new demands is the standard of production is exceeded during the provisional period, prior to the establishment of a new wage board. The Welsh miners also demanded liberty of action to strike to enforce any demands they may make. The viewpoint of the government, according to The Daily Express, was that such a settlement would be useless with the threat of a strike in the background.

Officials of the Federation of Miners this afternoon said Premier Lloyd George would announce the strike settlement terms in the house of commons tonight. Arrangements for a referendum ballot by the miners upon the government's plan are expected to be begun at once. Frank Hodges, secretary of the Federation of Miners, outlined the chief points of the agreement as follows:

1. Miners to receive wage increase of two shillings per shift (normally 48 cents.)
2. Boys to receive wage increases of one shilling.
3. Sliding scale of adjustment to be inaugurated based on output, compared with September mine production.
4. A permanent wage board to be established.

It was stated at Premier Lloyd George's official residence that the executive committee of the Federation of Miners was recommending that the men vote to end the strike.

WEATHER

Fair and continued cold tonight.

ROGERSVILLE CONFIDENT OF DEFEATING PURPLE AND GOLD

Heavy Lauderdale County Team Will Meet Albany High Friday Afternoon.

Check full of confidence, the heavy Lauderdale county high school team will reach here early Friday morning to meet the Albany high school at 3:30 o'clock on the local field. The Rogersville squad is said to be one of the heaviest in North Alabama high school circles and Coach Templeton's Purple and Gold eleven will be forced to go the limit for a decision.

Rogersville defeated Lawrence county high, of Moulton, 27 to 0 last week. On comparative scores Rogersville has a decided advantage over the locals. Coffee high, of Florence, pie for the locals last year, however, has won from Rogersville this year. "If Florence can, was the determined attitude of the Purple and Gold clan yesterday afternoon when a halt was called on practice at dark. The entry of Meyers, a new student, has increased the confidence of the locals. This is Meyer's first week at football and although he needs training, Coach Templeton is expecting great things of his new "find." Meyers is being tried out both in the line and in the backfield. It is likely that he will be started in the line against Rogersville, adding his 165 pounds of weight to the light Albany line.

Wilson, 180 pounds tackle, is expected to star against the Lauderdale county team. His weight will go far toward stopping the plunging Rogersville backs. McAbee, center, has been rapidly rounding into condition this week. What he lacks in weight, he makes up in gritty determination and Rogersville will find it hard to gain through the middle of the Albany line. Hatton, Tarpey, McAfee and Humphrey, backfield men, are in perhaps the best condition of the year. All escaped even severe bruises in the Florence game and they have reached their mid-season form. The locals probably will be without the services of Royer, big fullback of last year's team. He has not yet entirely recovered from the Massey game. Ezell, whose punting was a feature of the Florence contest, is expected to gain many yards in exchange of punts with Rogersville. Ezell, although it is his first year, has developed punting ability far above the ordinary high school standard. His punts in the Florence game averaged close to 40 yards. He is seeking to break that record in the Rogersville game.

SCENES OF EMOTION ARE HEART-RENDING AT FUNERAL TODAY FOR CORK OFFICIAL

Services Are Held at Cathedral for the Late Terrence McSwiney.

BODY TO BE BURIED AT CORK ON SUNDAY

Second Funeral Service for Lord Mayor be Held at Dublin.

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—Amid heart-rending scenes of emotion, funeral services were conducted today at St. George's Roman Catholic cathedral, Southward for the late Terrence McSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who died in the 74th day of his hunger strike at Brixton jail.

A second funeral service will be held at Dublin, when the body arrives there en route for Cork, where it will be buried on Sunday.

With the Bishop of Cloyne officiating, solemn requiem high mass for the repose of the soul of Terrence McSwiney was celebrated at Queenstown yesterday in St. Colman's Cathedral.

Business in the town was completely suspended during the services, which were attended by 5,000 persons, while many hundreds knelt outside the cathedral.

HUNTSVILLE BALL CLUB IS ORGANIZED

FULL LIST OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS HAVE BEEN NAMED

HUNTSVILLE, Oct. 28.—With a full list of directors and officers in charge, the Huntsville Baseball Association is now ready to enter the new six-city league which is expected to furnish a fine brand of baseball here next season. Organization was effected last night at large meeting of stockholders in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce.

W. R. Hutton, vice president of the Huntsville Bank & Trust Co., is president, Peter S. Dunnivant prominent young merchant, is vice president, John A. Pender, merchant, is treasurer and William W. Gumma, merchant, is secretary. The officers are all directors and besides them, the directory is composed of Chas. L. Hackworth, Claude Phillips and Clarendon Davis.

The directing heads of the new association are ardent baseball fans and lovers of the sport in Huntsville may rest assured that the Huntsville organization will always be in quest of the best there is in the game.

The directors were elected one by one in open meeting last night by popular ballot. The directors were then instructed to retire and elect their officers. They did so and reported the above named officers within a few minutes.

The association will be incorporated with a capital stock of $5,000 as soon as the papers can be drawn up. Two representatives will be sent to Sheffield November 4 to be present at the organization of the new league and as they must take $500 of the thousand dollar forfeit with them, collections of the first installment of subscriptions to local club will begin on November 1.

PRIZES GIVEN BY LOCAL MERCHANTS

Citizens of North Alabama will have an opportunity to obtain valuable prizes, given away by the Albany merchants, next week, beginning November 1.

During the recent booster trips, numbers were given away at each point visited. Many of these numbers correspond with numbers posted in local business houses. When the owner of the corresponding number calls at the business house, he is presented with a crisp new ten dollar bill. The prizes are given as a token of appreciation of the local business people for the patronage of Tennessee Valley citizens during the past year.

MEN'S PROBLEMS BEGIN WHERE NATURE LEAVES OFF

The response of nature in the matter of food seems adequate—all that heart can desire. The proper preparation of food supplies and their distribution is one of the most serious that confronts humanity. And if human food supplies are generous, it would seem that nature has been prodigal as regards the fuel supply she has furnished. However, the government geological surveys have definitely located coal fields that contain three and a half trillion tons of bituminous and over twenty billion tons of hard coal—enough to last for untold generations to come. With such vast supplies at hand the question naturally arises why is it so difficult to get enough coal to burn and food to eat.

In years gone by the crude and laborious methods employed explained all this, but not modern invention has made man's producing power so great that the mere production of an article no longer gives serious concern.

In the case of fuel, its distribution is becoming a problem of first rate importance, and it is occupying the minds not only of financiers, but of statesmen as well.

It is charged by those who see inefficiency and waste in the present handling of coal, that two concerns, viz, the National City Bank of New York city and the J. P. Morgan Company control all the anthracite coal fields, and all the transportation lines entering these fields. It is pointed out that the soft coal mines and the railroads from them are also controlled by special interests and is charged that in no instance do these interests furnish sufficient carrying power and space to keep the coal moving as fast as it can be mined, by the new up-to-date mining machinery.

The same is also charged against the transportation systems that undertake to move the great grain crops of the West.

A recent issue of the Literary Digest contains an interesting word picture describing the scramble and excitement that prevails among the wheat farmers of Nebraska and North East Colorado every time a train of empty freight cars is available for loading for the Eastern markets. In this article it is put down as a fact that rarely do the wheat farmers get to market their wheat during the same year in which it is raised owing to lack of transportation facilities.

The consumers of both coal and wheat are in the vast majority over those who trade in it, and carry it from the fields to final destination, and should this majority get busy on a remedy for the present transportation difficulties they would be solved in a short time. What ever party is elected to power next Tuesday, during the next four years, will be called upon to devise ways and means for making the products of nature more easily available to the great consuming public.

"SMELLING COMMITTEES"

The do-nothing Congress established one record of which even Republicans are ashamed. It made futile and partisan attempts to belittle America's part in the war.

Casting aside all pretense at constructive legislation so urgently needed to speed the country on its way to peaceful industry, something over fifty "smelling committees" were appointed to investigate the letting of war contracts, the construction of camps and the mobilization of the greatest army the United States ever was asked to call into being.

The ranking spirit of partisanship displayed by the investigators and the undisguised effort to besmirch the nation's war record will ever be a blot on the Republican escutcheon.

But the sting of the investigating was in the "findings." Not a single case of fraud was uncovered. Not a single person was recommended for prosecution. Not a single piece of legislation was proposed, and it is apparent none was contemplated.

Eighteen months of valuable time was wasted in a futile attempt to discredit a Democratic President and a Democratic administration, because they had succeeded in bringing the greatest victory of all times to American arms, despite the numerous attempts to hamstring them by Republicans in both branches of Congress who placed partisanship above country.

Gen. John J. Pershing is a Republican. He was selected by a Democratic administration to lead America's forces to victory.

General Pershing more than any other man was familiar with America's conduct of the war. General Pershing did not testify before any of the Republican "smelling committees," and there was good reason. General Pershing, soldier that he is, would have told the truth, and the truth from a Republican who placed country above party would have cut off the partisans' line of retreat.

But if General Pershing's testimony is lost to the record by reason of his failure to be called as a witness, we have this from his report to the Secretary of War:

"In closing this report, Mr. Secretary, I desire to record my deep appreciation of the unequalled support accorded me throughout the war by the President and yourself. My task was simplified by your confidence and wise counsel."

What more might General Pershing have said had he been placed on the witness stand?

A "smelling committee" was appointed and after an expensive junket over foreign battlefields demanded that General Pershing turn over his records to them. The General replied the records had been sent home, but that he would be pleased to present them in person upon his return.

The committee returned. General Pershing returned.

The committee called witness after witness, politicians, experts, disgruntled contractors, unsuccessful bidders and what not—but never a call for General Pershing, the one man who they knew would tell the truth.

It was a dastardly attempt by a political party to tarnish the nation's honor. The air was be-fouled by jealous politicians with their clamor in an endeavor to hide from America the facts that in their hearts they knew would win the applause and gratitude of their countrymen.

The "smelling committees" were sponsored by the Republican party; a party which proved its incapacity to handle the ninety-day Spanish war; a party which was denounced at the time for its incompetence by the late Theodore Roosevelt and Gen. Leonard Wood.

The honor of the nation is unblemished, thanks to President Wilson and his Democratic cabinet chiefs.—Nashville Tennessean.

WAR INSURANCE

The League of Nations is functioning, despite the Republican party and irreconcilables of the United States Senate.

The organization established at Brussels to work out the details has prepared a budget showing the cost to member nations for 1921.

The charge against the United States, if it indicates by the result of next Tuesday's election that it is "in favor of going in," is fixed at $202,500.

Two hundred thousand dollars to maintain the peace of the world!

Would any business man hesitate to urge the payment of such a premium to safeguard an eight hundred billion dollar investment?

This League of Nations is a business proposition after all.—Nashville Tennessean.

The Benevolent Hospital and its conduct is a credit to these cities. While the facilities are comparatively limited—not in quality but quantity, of floor space—the service rendered suffering humanity is immeasurable. When the helpless in health and purse have applied here for aid and relief they have never applied in vain.

It is a self supporting institution, one of the few of its kind in our great country, and this has been brought about only through the most careful management.

The demand is great for enlargement of the present structure. Think it over.

If party loyalty were as strong as in the old days there would not be any use in arguments and campaign efforts.

JUST MENTIONING HARD LUCK

Here Are a Few Instances on Record Which It Would Seem Hard to Beat.

There was a case described in the papers recently in which a man, hurrying to seek his bride who had failed to keep her appointment at the church, slipped, and a revolver which he had in his pocket went off. He was wounded, and to increase the injury the police summoned him for carrying arms without a license. And, of course, the wedding was interfered with.

Almost on a par was the case, which happened some time ago, of a little boy—of course, a naughty little boy—who was comfortably and happily engaged in stealing apples from a farmer's orchard. He was getting along very nicely, with pockets that were really bulging, when a cow strolled under the tree. The animal's appearance startled the boy; he slipped, and fell on the back of the cow.

The impact scared the cow, and it made straight for home with an exceedingly unwilling passenger clinging tightly to its back. The farmer happened to be at home to receive the cow, and as the boy fell off his pockets emptied themselves of their store of apples. Let us draw a veil over the ensuing tragedy of the farmer and the naughty little apple stealer.

The scene was Hyde Park corner. A very well-dressed man, evidently hurrying to Victoria station, cut across the road. He slipped and fell. His bag strongly objected to this rough treatment, and promptly emptied itself of its week-end contents. The man was nearly run over; some of the things out of the bag were quite run over, and the only consolation the man got was the remark of a passing woman, who said that she admired his taste in pajamas!

And the last example of hard luck. It happened on the east coast. He was an enthusiastic fisherman. He had had a very successful day, and proudly exhibited his catch to a stranger. Then he got another bite. In his excitement he overbalanced. Fortunately the water wasn't deep. He touched bottom and came up with an enormous crab clinging viciously to his leg.

When he crawled out he found that the stranger had disappeared with his catch of fish, and that his fishing rod had gone for a trip to sea. But what really broke his heart was the action of a facetious port attendant, who threatened to run him in for bathing without a proper costume!—From Answers, London.

and Save 1/4 of Your Meat Bill

SAVE yourself the tiring work of preparing meat in a hot kitchen—and at the same time give your family better meals.

One-fourth to one-half of the uncooked meat you buy is waste—then you have to prepare it and a lot of the weight is lost in cooking.

When you buy a pound of meat for dinner you actually put about one-half pound of real meat on the table.

When you buy a 12 ounce can of Council Meat you actually give your family 12 ounces of the finest of well cooked meat.

For breakfast try Council Dried Beef creamed, or Council Vienna Style Sausage, or country sausage meat. For dinner—Council Roast Beef, or roast mutton, or hamburger steak and onions.

For lunch or supper—corned beef hash or deviled ham or baked beans—in fact, the Council line is so varied that you can have something for every meal in the week, and save work and money.

COTTON MARKET

OPENING IS WEAK

LISTS CONTINUED DROP ON HEAVY SELLING FROM THREE SOURCES

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The cotton market opened weaker today at a decline of 20 to 41 points on the hedge in the negotiations to end the strike of British coal miners, poor cables and continued unsatisfactory reports regarding the textile situation and prospects for clearing weather in the South. These factors caused general and heavy selling here in which the South, Liverpool and Wall street participated. The list continued to drop after the start and at the end of the first 20 minutes was about 65 points under last night's close.

GLADYS BROCKWELL NEW MYSTERY PICTURE STAR THURSDAY STAR TODAY

There is nothing new under the sun, says the old adage; but advance notices pronounce an emphatic denial of this in promising a theme never before portrayed on the screen, in the newest Gladys Brockwell picture, "A Sister to Salome," to be presented by William Fox at the Star Theatre today. This production, it is said, contains not alone an abundance of thrills and a remarkable love story, but is centered upon a mystery which is maintained with fine ingenuity until the very last scene.

Edward J. Le Saint, responsible for the direction of so many of Gladys Brockwell's greatest successes, again officiated in the making of "A Sister to Salome." Supporting the star as leading man is William Scott. Others in the cast are Ben Deely, whose work as the heavy consists in seeking to thwart the destinies of the first two, and Edwin Booth Tilton, the well-known character actor.

The story and scenario were written by Julius G. Furthman.

Chopsticks Easy to Manipulate.

It is easy to learn to use chopsticks. Penholders or pencils make perfect substitutes for practice. All that is necessary is to remember that the sticks are in effect extensions of the fore and second fingers, and to begin with short-length reaches and as practice makes perfect extend them gradually to their full length. Baked beans are good to begin with, and from these in very short time the novice will pass on to boiled rice and be able to roll it into a neat ball, pick it up and "swish" it in sirup or sugar as one to the manner born.—Exchange.

He Was Right.

"Can any boy tell me the three foods required to keep the body in health?" There was a silence in the class till one youth held up his hand and replied: "Your breakfast, your dinner and your supper!"

Women to Probe League of Nations

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The International Woman Suffrage Alliance, according to a statement from its president, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, will appoint a woman resident in Geneva, Switzerland, to report in a neutral manner to the organized women of the world all facts concerning the operation of the League of Nations.

A selection will be made at a meeting of the board of officers of the alliance in London on November 22 from nominations which are now being received from the various national organizations making up the alliance including the National American Woman Suffrage Association. The requirements for the post are that the nominee must be able to speak French fluently, be willing to live in Geneva, and possess a highly cultivated mind with a bent for political understanding. The officers of the alliance will request that all other women's international organizations endorse their selection or send representatives of their own, thus forming a committee of women in Geneva whose business it will be to keep the women of the world correctly informed as to every detail of the League of Nations.

This action is the outcome of a conference ordered by the last convention of the international alliance between its representatives and the resident officials of the League as to the means by which closer relationship between the league and the organized women of the world might be established. Sir Eric Drummond, chief of the secretariat, suggested the appointment of a woman and the plan will be carried out by the board of the alliance.

NO PLANS MADE YET TO OBSERVE "ARMISTICE DAY"

While many sections of the nation are making great preparations for the observance of Armistice Day, November 11, no plans have been made for observance of the signing of the armistice here.

Last year the day was generally observed, many of the stores being closed and almost a general holiday in the Twin Cities.

Many expressions have been heard here recently, giving voice to the hope that Albany and Decatur again will observe the day.

Will Make It Gorgeous Pageant Instead of Meaningless Succession of Dates, Says Writer.

Brian Hooker, who believes in a future for the "mosaic" writes in the Century on their possibilities in re-creating history and converting it, out of a meaningless succession of dates and names, into a gorgeous pageant.

"History will be known as never before, for it will be seen and not heard, revived before us to the very life and re-enacted in our presence. We shall watch Babylon fall and Rome not build in a day. And as with history itself, so with the whole wonder of legendary and historical story. We shall see tall Troy burning, Robin Hood hunting the king's deer in Sherwood, and Lancelot and Tristram riding through Broceliande; the sun shall flash on Caesar's armor, the foam about the bows of the Argo, and through fire as veritable as himself Sigurd will go to Brunhild. So with a vividness beyond words and an illusion beyond paint and tinsel we shall review the wars of heroes and the loves of gods of other days. Nor need the new field be confined to the seriously beautiful alone; there will be room enough for all that is merely fanciful and entertaining. Gods are no better material than fairies, and George Washington would look as well cutting down the cherry tree as crossing the Delaware. If Lancelot would make a fine figure in the pictures so would Don Quixote, the Iliad would show no better in its kind than the Little Mermaid or Hansel and Gretel. For the special power of the screen is to present more actually than the novel or the play can represent them whatever may be wonderful to behold. Its motto must be 'seeing is believing,' and its office is to verify before our sight alike all history and fable and romance."

JAPAN IS PAYING THE PRICE

Development of Industrialism Lowering Physical Efficiency and Moral Standards of People.

This move of the population from the maple-clad hills and rice fields of beautiful Japan to the crowded quarters, low resorts and inhuman factories of the cities is lowering the physical efficiency, the mental horizon and the moral standards of the people. Tuberculosis is taking its toll from frenzied industrialism. A prominent Y. M. C. A. worker, Mr. J. Merle Davis, whose study of the social problems of an increasing urban population in Japan has been thorough, says that an expert in factory conditions makes the statement that often one-half of the girls employed in certain mills become depraved within a year after entering the mills. They lose their health soon after, so that the price of a broader commerce and a sun flag in every port is being paid by weak womanhood and hollow-chested men. —Christian Herald.

MRS. R. J. DANIELL HOSTESS CLUB HOSTESS

The Wednesday Afternoon Card club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. R. J. Daniell, hostess. Two tables of club members enjoyed the auction game which resulted in Mrs. Charles Rush making top score and capturing the club prize, a deck of cards. After the game the hostess served her guest a plate luncheon.

MRS. BAIRD

ENTERTAINS PROGRESSIVE ROOK CLUB

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. E. F. Baird proved a charming hostess to the Progressive Rook Club. Baskets of fall gift flowers were tastefully arranged in the lovely living room, where the interesting game was played. Mrs. Price Hamilton, of Birmingham, was the only club guest. At the conclusion of the afternoon a tempting salad course was served by the hostess.

Friends in the cities of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rabby will be sorry to learn that their little daughter, Will Deane, is suffering an attack of scarlet fever.

McPHEARSAN-OWENS

A wedding of affectionate interest to the brides friends in this place was solemnized Tuesday, October 12th in Denver, Colorado, when Miss Pearl Owens of this place became the bride of Mr. Carson McPhearsan. Miss Owens is a handsome and popular young lady who has made a number of friends during her residence here. Mr. McPhearsan is a man of sterling character. Mr. and Mrs. McPhearsan are making their home on Mr. McPhearsan's ranch in Colorado.

H. B. LUNCHEON

The H. B. Luncheon Club was most pleasantly entertained yesterday by Mrs. W. R. Smith at her attractive home on Sherman street. The living rooms were bright with fall flowers, yellow chrysanthemums and ferns being used in artistic profusion. A beautifully appointed table was centered by a crystal vase of yellow chrysanthemums and places were laid for thirteen club members. After an elaborately served luncheon the afternoon was spent in doing fancy work.

WORSE THAN ANCIENT FORMS

Oldtime Ordeal by Fire and Water Declared Eclipsed by That of Modern Travel.

Those who opine that the widely advertised ordeals and trials of the olden days were the only sin-on-pure specimens have another opine coming to them. Their opinion, I may say, are badly out of kilter, writes Kenneth L. Roberts in the Saturday Evening Post. There was a time when I could shudder as with the palsy at some of the trials upon which mankind deliberately embarked before the old world had become as shopworn as it now is; but now that I have looked more deeply into the matter I can't get a shudder out of any of them.

They weren't genuine, blown-in-the-glass articles at all. Anybody could beat the game. There was always a little shop up an alley where for a certain consideration one could buy fireproofing material guaranteed to carry him safely through trial by fire, or an imitation stomach which could be lowered cunningly down the throat so that trial by poison could be safely negotiated, or asbestos paint of such potency that after three coats, had been applied to the soles of the feet the owner of the feet could not only skip lightly across nine red-hot plowshares, but could even do a marathon on them if the occasion demanded it. No; the gentlemen back in the dark ages who went through fire and water in order to demonstrate their worthiness to tall willowy blonds who lived in unheated stone castles and were therefore subject to inflammatory rheumatism were not so hardy and reckless as some people suppose. And there is a present-day trial which makes those cleverly pressed agent trials of the moldy past look sticky and undernourished and nauseated. I refer to that celebrated European ordeal known as trial by travel.

FORCED TO RENEW LEARNING

Mrs. Minerva Jones and Her Unfortunate Instructor Both Played in Hard Luck.

In attending the Americanization class Mrs. Minerva Jones had one object, and one only. She wanted to learn to write her name. For a time all effort seemed futile, and the painstaking and conscientious teacher was on the verge of despair; but at last patience had its reward, and toward the end of the course Minerva was able to trace laboriously but proudly the magic symbols. Then she rested on her laurels. The exhausted teacher heaved a sigh of relief as the door closed on Minerva's portly form.

"I feel that I have not acted in vain, but I should hate to go through that again," she said to one of the assistants.

At the beginning of the next term, much to the astonishment of all, Minerva again presented herself, bland and smiling as usual.

"Well, Minerva, what can we do for you?"

"The instructor endeavored to speak cheerfully."

"I've done come to learn to write my name, Miss Mary," announced Minerva complacently.

"But you learned how to do that last term, Minerva. You surely haven't forgotten so soon."

Minerva smiled broadly. "No, I ain't forgot, Miss Mary, but I've done changed my name since then. I'm Mrs. Ephraim Jackson now."—Youth's Companion.

Mounting a Print Without Buckling. How many times have you pasted down a paper or mounted a print to find that when it dried it had buckled disappointingly? The Scientific American gives the following instructions as to how to avoid this difficulty:

Keep the mount flat and with a small wad of cotton wetted in clean water, slightly dampen the approximate area to be covered by the print. Cover the back of the print with paste—preferably arabic—smooth and thin. Apply the print to the mount, and with aid of a paper blotter and a small roller smooth the print from its center outward. No paste will appear outside the limits of the print; any dampness exceeding these limits will evaporate. Any paper shreds left by the blotter, etc., may be wiped clean from the print's surface with the same damp wad of cotton.

Testing Strength of Concrete.

As the strength of a concrete mixture is much affected by the amount of water contained, the novel apparatus of the United States bureau of standards is designed to give an accurate test of the fluidity of flow. A circular table-top mounted on a plunger is raised and dropped half an inch by a cam on the shaft of a hand-crank. A sample of the mixture, molded into a truncated cone 6 inches tall and 8 to 12 inches in diameter, is placed in the center of the table, and the crank is given 15 revolutions. The average diameter to which the sample is spread out is divided by the original diameter and multiplied by 100. The result is the flowability number—150 indicating a strong material for bricks, and 225 one suitable for reinforced concrete.

A New Way To Clean Your Teeth

Dentists Everywhere Condemning Coarse Gritty Pastes. Many Recommending Wonderful New Cleanser.

More and more people are coming to realize that "sandpapering" is not the proper way to cleanse the teeth. Dentists are quick in condemning the gritty pastes that rely upon their abrasive qualities for cleaning.

After careful research and experiment, Dr. E. D. Miller writing in the Dental Cosmos reports that, "With some of the much extolled preparations on the market it is quite easy by applying the brush to cut the tooth half through exposing the pulp inside of two hours."

It seems, however, that oral hygienists have found the answer to the problem in Steroline—a wonderful new kind of dentifrice. Steroline is not a paste, but a liquid. It penetrates where coarse gritty pastes cannot, and its prophylactic qualities make it a sure preventive against infection.

Dentists everywhere, recognizing what a boon this wonderful new cleanser is to people suffering from poor teeth and tender gums, are recommending it unreservedly. A few drops on your brush, used regularly each day, assure strong white teeth and a sweet pure breath. And better yet, its constant use keeps the mouth sterile and prevents the dangerous pyorrhea germs from gaining a foothold.

Get a bottle of Steroline from your druggist today. Try it for a week, if not thoroughly satisfied, return the card-board box and your money will be refunded at once.

American Legion to Send Delegate

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, within a few days will select a man to represent the legion at a conference to be held November 28 in Paris of representatives of the war societies of America, England and France. The conference will be under the auspices of the Societe des Combats, one of the French veterans' associations, and will look toward a close alliance of the veterans of the three great allies.

The legion man who goes to the conference will have to pay his own way, Galbraith said, since no fund is set aside by the legion for such expenses. When such a man is selected he will be given authority to establish connection with the French war societies and also to confer with the leaders of the five great British veterans' associations.

EVEN THE WOMEN CAN SPARE AN EAR

Wealthy Cuban Who Advertised for a Left Ear Receives Many Offers From the Fair Sex

Written for the International News Service

By Margery Rex
NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Senor Frank Quesada, a wealthy planter, who came not long ago from Cuba to the land of the eighteenth amendment in search of a left ear for sale, is now plying the floors of the lodgings at No. 158 East One hundred and Twenty-second street. He is trying to decide whether to hire a secretary or to shut his eyes, open his hands and take whatever ear is enclosed in the nearest letter.

For his days are made strenuous and his nights hideous with the telegrams, cablegrams, special delivery letters, freight and express packages and callers who wish to dispose of their left ears at a good fair price, with satisfaction to the consumer and with a reasonable margin of profit to the eratic dealer. In auditory organs. But this is only a mere detail compared with the huge problem in ethics and taste which confronts the Cuban gentleman.

Women Have Advantage
Many charming young women have called—several hundred, to quote Senor Quesada's landlady—who are "simply crazy" to sell a left ear to replace the one forever lost when a pitiful racehorse stopped running "one enough to step on the Cuban."

"The women have all the luck," mourned a young man who sat waiting for the purchaser of ears to come home. "They can comb their hair over the place where the ear was, and who will know the difference?"

The writer has received many petitions from men and women who wish to dispose of ears, and has sent them on to Mr. Quesada to do as he will with them. Many of them tell of conditions of life that make it so imperative to get money that the thought of discomfort and disfigurement means comparatively nothing.

But granting that Mr. Quesada decides upon an ear to have grafted upon his own head, would it not be contrary to medical and surgical ethics to take an ear from a well man, even though with his consent, and give it to another? Would not that be a felony?

Many people have lived happy lives even after worse mutilation than the loss of an ear. And should any one be allowed to maim himself for money, or to take part in such a transaction?

Peculiar offers to sell have been the order of the day lately. A Boston woman, tired of being poor, offers her husband in open market for $10,000. Babies and unborn children are bartered about, and from Chicago recently has come news of a woman who wants to sell herself to help a sick husband.

Many Uses For Money
Two thousand dollars was Mr. Quesada's first offer. He could not be reached yesterday to determine whether he had raised his price to suit some of his prospective ear vendors, some of whom want as much as $10,000.

Many are the uses to which the applicants wish to put the money thus to be gained, possibly. Some want farms in the far West, others have different schemes to get away from New York, since they say conditions here are discouraging.

It is rumored that the senor has already chosen an ear. And yet this is denied by other lodgers, neighbors of his, who say there is still a chance to interest their Cuban friend.

What will be the outcome, and will he choose a masculine or a feminine ear? If the latter will it function as well or better than its fellow on the tight side of the Quesada head? Will a woman's ear be more attentive to gossip and bright bits of news than a man's, and will anything entering the right ear and attempting to go out by the left be brought up sharply and told to stay by the latter?

This may yet go down in history as the first case of a right ear knowing what a left ear hears.

RUSHING CARS TO MOVE GRAIN CROP

FREIGHT CONGESTION AT CHICAGO RELIEVED. MOVEMENT INCREASING

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—Freight congestion which became acute after the switchmen's strike has been largely cleared up, but the demand for cars for movement of grain is increasing according to a report just issued by the American Railroad Association. Reports from the Chicago Board of Trade which annually handles vast quantities of cash or "spot" grain in addition to the dealing in contracts for future delivery where supply and demand dominate, show considerable improvement in transportation.

American railroads handled a greater volume of traffic during August than ever before in that month, according to the Railroad Association report. In four weeks 3,853,822 cars of commercial freight were loaded compared with 3,580,267 in the same period of 1919, and 3,849,026 in 1918.

For the week ended September 4 the accumulation of delayed cars had been reduced 6,000 from the preceding week. For the week ended September 1 the daily average of deferred car regulations was 146,620, as against 137,200 the preceding week.

It is pointed out that the vital importance of transportation facilities during the grain moving season may be seen when it is considered that the nation's crop of approximately a billion bushels of wheat, three billion bushels of corn, a billion and a quarter bushels of oats and quantities of other grains must be moved within a period of a few months.

"BOLSHEVISM: WHAT IT IS: AND THE REMEDY FOR IT"

—Will be the Subject of a—

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE

Given Under the Auspices of the Knights of Columbus, by

DAVID GOLDSTEIN OF BOSTON

—at the—

Masonic Theatre

Albany, Ala.

Friday, Oct. 29th, 1920

Seats Reserved for Confederate and World-War Veterans

LECTURE WILL COMMENCE AT 7:30 P. M.

The attitude of our Government towards "Bolshevism" has centered public thought, not only in America but over the entire world, on this puzzling problem. And although all have heard and read quite a good deal about it recently, very few know what it really is.

Realizing that fact and in collaboration with the Government, the Knights of Columbus, as a part of their reconstruction plans, chose several public speakers who, at the expense of the Order, are touring the entire nation so as to bring before its citizenry "Bolshevism" as it is.

Among those, Mr. Goldstein is for many reasons the best equipped to speak both interestingly and intelligently on this subject. An orator of the first magnitude, he has the ability to hold the rapt attention of his audiences, and being at one time a leader in the Socialistic Party, which he deserted on account of the untenableness of its doctrines, he is best fitted to show us what we need to know: "What it is: and the remedy for it."

A staunch defender of "conservative trades unionism, he cordially invites the union men of this community to hear him, as in the course of his lecture he will show that "Bolshevism" is detrimental to their best interests.

As the underlying principles of Bolshevism tend to wipe out all worship of a Supreme Being, whether among Jews, Protestants, or Catholics, he desires earnestly that all ministers of the Gospel be present.

Special Close-Outs

We have a few odd pieces which we cannot match, which will be closed out to the first comes in.

Three Iron Ranges

If you prefer a Range with a hearth and roomy oven, this Range will meet your views, it has plenty of room on the top for vessels, the design is of the modern smooth finish style that has grown in favor. The nickel parts are also in keeping with the general pattern. Like all that P. & B. people made, this is a good operating Range and therefore will do good baking. The towel bar can be lifted off to polish the Range, the nickel over shelf can be removed in the same way. This coal Range has a duplex grate which will reverse for coal or wood. This is undoubtedly one of the best bargains we have ever offered, remember only three to be closed out, don't wait, you will be sorry if you miss this real bargain. Think of it, a solid Cast Iron Range for $49.50

One Progress Cook Stove

In good condition. We can recommend it as a good baking, durable cook stove, the fire box is of good size in length and width and the fire back like every other part of the stove is very durable, can be seen in our Moulton street store close out price $15.00

Moulton Street Store

One Advance Steel Range with Reservoir in good shape, used a short time, can be seen in our Moulton street store, price $39.50

One Laundry Heater

The division flue strip in this style of special Laundry Heater gives a full and even distribution of heat over the entire top, special price $6.00

One Cottage Heater

Seeing the fire goes a far way in making one comfortable. This Cottage Heater has a large front door with mica lights, and there is also a large door in the end for feeding the fire, the stove although used some time is a real bargain at $16.50

One Hot Blast Heater

In fairly good shape, nickeled trimmed and an extra good bargain at $14.50

Cox Concludes W. Virginia Tour

(International News Service)
KNOX, W. VA., Oct. 28.—With a tribute to William Howard Taft's "gift of prophecy," Governor James M. Cox Thursday paid farewell to W. Virginia and entered upon a strenuous three-days stumping campaign of Ohio, his home state. Mr. Taft, the Governor insisted, has the power of foretelling events inasmuch as he predicted "about a year ago in West Virginia" that labor and the churches would endorse the league of nations. Judge Taft also predicted, Governor Cox said, that the women, if given the vote, would cast their ballot for the league.

"In the past week," Governor Cox continued, "it is perfectly apparent that Judge Taft correctly visualized the future." Governor Cox also reiterated his pledge of yesterday to "sit down with the Senate" and accept reservations to the league "about half between the Hitchcock reservations and the Lodge reservations."

"A SISTER TO SALOME" NEW FOX PLAY, COMING STAR TODAY

What is described as the most amazing photoplay of the year is coming to the Star Theatre on Friday. In "A Sister to Salome" William Fox offers the public a powerful story of a fascinating diva whose great love serves as the basis for a drama full of suspense and surprise.

Gladys Brockwell will be seen in the title role—a part peculiarly suited to her great talents and which she is said to surpass even her own enviable record.

The story as outlined in advance reports is different from anything heretofore seen on the silver sheet. It was written especially for Miss Brockwell by Julius G. Furthman, one of the screen's best known writers—who also wrote the scenario.

The star again is directed by Edward J. Le Saint. William Scott, the popular leading man, plays opposite her.

JACK LONDON STORY AS SCREEN THRILLER PRINCESS FRIDAY

"Burning Daylight," Jack London's novel, has been turned into a motion picture and will be produced at the Princess Theatre Friday.

"Burning Daylight" is the name by which Elam Harnish is known in the Yukon, where, as a prospector, he discovers a gold field that makes him a millionaire.

The early scenes of the gold stampede in the little Arctic village, with the desperate crowds of adventurers making their headquarters in the Tivoli dance hall—the center of primitive passions controlled only by the self-made laws of men who are strong—and the later scenes of the Stock Exchange stampede in the heart of New York's financial district—the center of the civilized fight for power that goes on as desperately within the bounds of written law—these form a background for a screen drama that ought to be extremely effective.

Says Wife Drinks Horse Liniment

COLUMBUS, Oct. 28.—Claiming his wife, Gladys, preferring other company, left him twelve times since their wedding, three and a half years ago, Roy Taylor asks for a divorce. He told the court that his wife drank a bottle of horse liniment when he protested against her conduct last January.

Harding Denies Knows Vanderlip

(International News Service)
MARION, O., Oct. 28.—The view was expressed at Senator Harding's headquarters today that reports were spread, linking the Senator's name with alleged activities of Washington D. Vanderlip in Russia, in order to embarrass the Republican presidential candidate. Senator Harding, who declares he never before heard of Vanderlip and has no agents in Russia, also saw in the spreading of this report by Washington officials an attempt to smoke him out on the policy he will have toward Russia, if elected.

To "Youth-ify" Gray, Streaked Hair

Ask anybody to guess how old you are, and notice how their first appraising glance is directed at your hair.

To be answered "You can't be more than thirty; I can tell by your hair," must give to any woman who is really forty or more a sense of pride and satisfaction.

But to become prematurely gray at 30 or 40, to look ten years older than you actually are—that is indeed a bitter experience. However, any woman can, with a bottle of Brownatone, restore to gray, faded and streaked hair all its maiden beauty and the identical color it had in girlhood, whether light golden, medium, dark brown or black. Brownatone is instant in results and absolutely harmless.

At all druggists: 50c and $1.50; two colors: "Light to Medium Brown" and "Dark Brown to Black."

RICH INDIANS AID BAPTIST MISSIONS

CREEKS OF OKLAHOMA HAVE RECENTLY MADE PLEDGES TOTALLING $81,000

(International News Service.) NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Native Creek Indians have recently made pledges amounting to more than $81,000 to the American Baptist Home Mission Society for carrying on its work among the Indians. Dr. Charles L. White, executive secretary of the society, said today.

Twelve thousand dollars of this money came in the shape of an eighty-acre farm adjoining Bacone College in Oklahoma, which is to be the Morrow Indians' Orphan's Home. Dr. B. D. Weeks, president of Bacone College, asked the American Baptist Home Mission Society some months ago for this land. Upon learning that the society had no funds available for such a purchase, Mr. and Mrs. Harjo bought the farm and presented it to the American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Two Indian women have given the society $50,000 for the erection of a new girl's building at the orphanage at Bacone. Mrs. Lucy Polokee donating $30,000 and Mrs. Soma Rosen $20,000. Besides these sums, enough more was secured in cash and pledges to bring the amount up to more than $81,000. All this is outside the pledges made in the Hundred Million Dollar Campaign.

Another of the Indian gifts recently made to the American Baptist Home Mission Society in the behalf of Bacone College was $50,000 given by an Indian named Eastman Richard for the erection of a boys' dormitory to bear the name of his son, Samuel, who died during the second year of his studies at Bacone. The gift was to show the appreciation felt by Mr. Richard for the education of his children in Baptist schools during the days of his poverty before oil was discovered on the Oklahoma farm.

Twenty-one tribes are represented in the enrollment at Bacone this year, President Weeks announces. Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles, Euchees, Shawnees, Kiowas, Comanches, Arapahoes, Caddos, Wichitas, Mississippis, Choctaws, Cheyennes, Mones, Pottawatomies, Crows, Hopis, Joes, Osages and Pawnees.

NOTICE OF SALE

Robert A. Ewing, as Adm., et al. vs. Arthur L. Garth et al.
Morgan County Circuit Court — In Equity.

Under a decree rendered September 14, 1920, by the Circuit Court of Morgan County, Alabama, in the above styled cause, I will proceed on Monday, November 15, 1920, within the legal hours of sale, before the Court House door of said County, to sell at public outcry to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described land, situated in Morgan County, Alabama:

Twenty acres of land conveyed to Arthur G. Garth by Lafayette and Matilda Garth by deed dated March 10, 1894, and recorded in Book 47, page 38, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Morgan County, Alabama, in which deed said land is described as follows: Twenty acres of land purchased by him (Lafayette Garth) of David P. Lewis on February 5, 1884; the land hereby sold consists of the northwest corner of said land, and lies east of Gunn's tract, and north of Lafayette and south of the Davis tract, and west of Lafayette and Matilda Garth, and lies in Section 22 and 27, Township 5, Range 5 West, in Morgan County, Alabama.

Also part of Lot 163 in City of Decatur, Morgan County, Alabama, described as follows: Beginning at intersection of Vine Street, or Courtland and Decatur Road, and Washington Street, and running east, parallel with Vine Street, or Courtland Road, 60 feet; thence in a southerly direction 108 feet; thence west 89 feet to Washington Street; thence along line of Washington Street 80 feet to point of beginning; less the following described part of said lot: Beginning at southwest corner of Washington and Vine Streets, running thence along Washington Street in a southwesterly direction 81 feet to property of Turner J. Hunt; thence in a southeasterly direction along line of property of Turner J. Hunt 30 feet; thence in a northeasterly direction, parallel with Washington Street, 81 feet to a point on Vine Street; thence along Vine Street 30 feet to point of beginning.

Witness my hand as Register, this October 14, 1920.

Fishing.

To dream of fishing is a sign of happiness. If with pole and line, small in degree; if with nets, much greater. If you catch any fish by either method it's a sign of success, in proportion to the manner of catching. To dream of a fish pond is a sign of good fortune; of a fish bone, of illness, of a fin, of poverty. To be surrounded by many fishermen signifies great good luck and remarkable success in your undertakings.—Chicago Herald and Examiner.

Chinese Decorate Roof Ridge.

The roof ridge of a Chinese house is usually decorated with an elaborate plaster ornament in the form of a design, embodying the character "fu," signifying happiness. To prevent the ornament being damaged by birds the owner of the house sticks numerous ordinary sewing needles point outward into the soft plaster.

Do This For Constipation

THE public should know that there is a vast difference in the action of the various remedies for constipation. Some are "rushes," purges, physics. They gripe and weaken. For lasting effect use a laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin acts gently and mildly so that even a tiny baby can use it with safety. It is a compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with peppermint and pleasant-tasting aromatics. A sixty-cent bottle will last an average family many months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the most popular of all laxatives and more is used in American homes than any other. Last year eight million bottles were sold by druggists, the largest sale in the world.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 513 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.

COTTON

Today the Price of Cotton to the Farmer is less than the Cost of Production.

WHY?

There are a number of reasons, but the outstanding one is the fact that the Farmers of the South are not organized. The American Cotton Association is perfecting its organization in the 14 Cotton Growing States and Alabama already has a strong membership in nearly every county in the State. But our membership is not strong enough to accomplish our full purposes, therefore beginning November 1st and continuing for 15 days a

50,000

Membership Drive

will be conducted. Has YOUR COUNTY COMPLETED ITS ORGANIZATION FOR THIS WORK? If not, it is your duty to see some officer of your County Association and start the work.

Read the following 12 objects and purposes of the association:

1. To improve and enlarge the warehousing facilities so that cotton shall not be damaged by standing in the open, and so that the producer may carry the crop with a minimum of expense, practically without physical damage, and with a maximum of security and financial ability.
2. To bring about a more equitable rule regarding the actual weight of the bale of cotton in order to obtain the net weight of the raw cotton in the bale.
3. To assist the farmer in an organization that he may know before the sale of his cotton, the length of the staple, the grade of the cotton, and the market price of that length of staple and grade at the principal markets, on the day when he offers it for sale.
4. To encourage the establishing of an compressing and better packing and wrapping of American cotton.
5. To so regulate and systematize the sampling of cotton that indiscriminate and often useless sampling of cotton may be reduced to a minimum and the American cotton bale may reach its ultimate market looking like a respectable and valuable package of material to be woven into cloth instead of like a bedraggled and disreputable bundle of rags.
6. To collect information regarding domestic and foreign consumption, the state of the trade, extent of acreage, supply and condition of cotton, prices at all markets, and all other information regarding the cotton industry, and to disseminate this information widely and place it especially in the hands of cotton producers and their organizations.
7. To broaden the market for raw cotton, to enlarge the use of cotton goods, and to educate those outside as well as inside the cotton area, to understand the cotton problem in all its phases.
8. To improve transportation and distribution facilities.
9. To promote the intelligent growing of standard varieties of cotton and the improvement and standardization of the quality in each community as a basis for better marketing.
10. To promote diversification of crops and a safe and well-balanced agriculture as the sound basis for a thrifty rural people.
11. To protect the interests of the cotton producer and to improve his condition generally.
12. To encourage by all proper means, the gradual marketing of cotton throughout the year, and the intelligent production of cotton on the basis of supply and demand in order that unintelligent and wasteful fluctuations in acreage and production and ruinous and rapid changes in prices, due to no other reason than speculative, may be avoided.

MILLIONS SAVED TO PRODUCERS THROUGH IMPROVED MARKETING

Marketing Representative Addressing Group of Farmers in Field.

Five and a half million dollars. That is the amount of savings and increased profits estimated to have been secured by producers through the assistance of the United States bureau of markets' field representatives in marketing, working in co-operation with state marketing agencies in 11 states during the year ended June 30, 1920. This figure is made up of hundreds of individual items of savings and additional profits estimated by growers, shippers and marketing agencies concerned and reported to the United States bureau of markets.

State co-operative work in marketing is carried on by the United States department of agriculture in 31 states, but information regarding the total savings effected in all of them is not yet available.

Improvement in methods of marketing and distributing farm products is the object of this marketing work. Investigations of grading, packing, loading, shipping and marketing are made and visual demonstrations given producers to familiarize them with the best marketing methods. Thus, some 300 demonstrations of approved practices of preparing farm products for market and over 700 talks relative to packing, grading, handling, storing and selling farm products and the formation of associations for co-operative activity were given. In one state alone two co-operative live-stock shipping associations with a membership of 3,000 shippers were formed, and an estimated saving of $73,548 secured through the co-operative shipping of 3 cars of cattle, hogs and sheep from 30 counties.

Aid Marketing Organizations.
While complete figures are not available, those at hand show that the field men were instrumental in the formation of 183 marketing organizations, including 50 live-stock shipping associations and 57 fruit or vegetable associations. They also assisted in the organization of 12 credit unions and 19 federations of existing associations, most of which are statewide in scope. One hundred and sixty-six wool pools handling over 10,000,000 pounds of wool were given assistance, a organization and grading. In a number of states the field men, through state agencies, secured the adoption of federal standards for farm products and containers. One hundred and thirty-eight groups of producers were assisted in making co-operative sales. One sale included 17 head of cattle, which sold for $2,08.97 above the prices quoted by local buyers on the day of sale.

Instruction in the marketing of sweet potatoes was given producers and shippers in the Southern states. In one state plans and specifications for 39 sweet-potato storage houses were furnished and in another state 53 storage houses constructed from plans furnished by the United States bureau of markets. A sweet-potato exhibit car was arranged and moved 1,100 miles over four railroads touching 31 points in the sweet-potato producing sections. The exhibit included a miniature model storage house, working plans, and specifications for storage houses, pictures, charts, and slides showing approved methods of production, harvesting, storing, grading and packing.

Demonstrates Approved Methods.
Exhibits illustrating approved marketing practices were conducted in six states. In most instances these exhibits were in connection with state or district fairs or at expositions of more than state importance. Colorado's potato shipments run from 9,000 to 13,500 cars a year. Of this quantity, 40 per cent is moved during the winter months when there is great danger of frost damage in transit. To stimulate interest among Colorado potato growers and shippers in better marketing conditions, an exhibit of a full-sized freight car was produced in the Denver Auditorium at the Western potato show this year to show by actual demonstration proper methods of lining and loading cars of potatoes to prevent loss from freezing in transit, and of sewing sacks to prevent loss of potatoes slipping through the tops of sacks. Some 3,000 people attended the exhibit, and it is confidently believed that a greater number of cars will be loaded properly.

Twenty-five short instruction courses relative to various phases of marketing were given in six states. In one state a course of lectures covering 12 weeks was given in a school of commerce. Co-operative enterprises in three states were given assistance in accounting problems. The collection and dissemination of information relative to quantity, quality and price of local produce offered for sale was arranged for at 11 points in four states.

The United States bureau of markets' report of the work of its field agents in marketing shows that the accomplishments were greater in number and of more value to producers and consumers during the year ended June 30, 1920, than in any previous year. It is felt that work of this character should make possible the development of a consistent national policy in improving marketing methods.

PLAN FEED LITTLE WAR SUFFERERS

American Relief Administration Faces Problem of Providing Food for Nearly Million Children

By Frank E. Mason,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—American Relief Administration will concentrate their principal efforts during the coming winter in Germany, Austria and Poland. Their survey shows conditions in Austria and Germany to be fully as bad as they were last winter and considerably worse than a year ago in Poland.

Child feeding has been discontinued in the Baltic States and in Hungary, while it being continued on a very reduced scale in Czechoslovakia. Conditions in these countries are reported to have sufficiently improved to justify the withdrawal of assistance.

The plans for relief in Austria call for feeding 300,000 children daily in American relief kitchens. The needy children will also be supplied with necessary underclothing, shoes and stockings. The estimate for Poland contemplated the daily feeding of 500,000 children. Due to the devastation by the recent fighting it is now estimated that the number of children who will absolutely require feeding will more nearly approach one million.
